

board of county commissioners, at its next regular meeting, shall proceed to carry out the wishes of the voters expressed at said election as herein provided for in this act.

SEC. 7. The board of county commissioners shall then proceed with the least possible delay to issue such bonds in such denominations and of such class and for such terms as may be deemed best by the said board of county commissioners. In making the sale of the said bonds, advertisement of the same shall be made in a newspaper published in the county for at least thirty days and also in such other newspaper as the county commissioners may decide upon, published within or without the State.

Commissioners to issue bonds.
Denomination and terms of bonds.
Sale to be advertised.

SEC. 8. If any act shall be passed by this or any subsequent session of the General Assembly authorizing the State to loan money to the counties to aid in the building or improving of the public roads taking county bonds as collateral for such loan, or if any provisions shall be made for the Federal Government to loan money to the county for the purpose as stated above, then the board of county commissioners is hereby authorized and empowered to avail themselves of the privilege and benefit of such act.

Commissioners to avail themselves of benefit of other legislation.

SEC. 9. When any bonds are issued under the provisions of this act, the board of county commissioners shall levy annually, on the first Monday in May or at such time as county taxes are levied, a special tax for the township in which such bonds are issued of such an amount on the property, both real and personal and on the polls as will provide a sufficient sum with which to pay the interest due on the bonds issued and provide a sinking fund for the retirement of the principal of said bonds as they may mature. The tax so levied shall be collected as other taxes and shall be kept as a separate fund to be applied for the purpose stated above, and it shall be a misdemeanor for the members of the board of county commissioners to use such funds for any other purpose.

When bonds are issued commissioners to levy tax for interest and principal.
To be kept in separate fund.

SEC. 10. That funds derived from the sale of the bonds or from any tax provided for in this act shall be kept as a separate fund and used by the road commissioners of Robeson County only for road work in the particular township for which the bonds are issued, or such tax is collected: Provided, that the road commissioners of Robeson County shall apportion to each township that votes bonds hereunder its pro rata share, according to its taxable property, of the general road fund of Robeson County, after deducting said township's pro rata part, according to its taxable property, of the general overhead county road expenses, to be expended upon the public roads of that township.

Fund to be used in township issuing bonds or paying tax.
Proviso: General road fund to be apportioned.

SEC. 11. All moneys derived from the sale of bonds authorized and sold under the provisions of this act or from the levy of tax herein provided shall be turned over to the county treasurer or

All moneys for roads to be turned into county depository, and kept in separate fund.